Mrs. Brown & Mrs. Delucchi's Shark Bites

Dojo Point Update

It has come to our attention that if you want to see a running tally of your child's class dojo points, you must pay a monthly fee. We do NOT want parents paying this fee. As a result, on Mondays we will let students see their totals. We will show them again on Fridays. Hopefully, they will show a positive progression of points for participating, turning homework on time, answering questions, etc.

Change in Asynchronous BINGO

Beginning Monday, we are making a slight change to the asynchronous BINGO assignments. In the past, we've relied on the honor system and a parent signature to give credit. Sadly, we are seeing more and more cheating. Work is not being done, but it is being signed off as completed. ☹️ As a result, we are now requiring photo evidence of work done. You'll need to submit those photos with the completed bingo boards at the end of the week. We are sorry for the added work, but we feel it is crucial to teach our students about academic honesty.

Lots of Assessments

As we near the end of the 2nd trimester, it is a time for LOTS of assessments. We sent home several hard copies of assessments in the February Supply Pick-up. Please keep them in a safe place until we assign the assessment via Teams. At that time, your child will complete the assessment on his/her own. You will then take a photo of the finished work and submit it in the correct Teams assignment. When the kids come to campus next week, we will do a few more one-on-one assessments with your child too.
